Employer & Workplace Engagement: Supporting Tomorrow's Talent

New Skills Boston aims to dramatically increase the number of students who progress through college and career pathways that are engaging and relevant, address community needs, and prepare young people to enter meaningful careers. Pathways schools integrate Work Based Learning into the student experience in a number of ways. As employer partners, there are many ways to support college and career pathways within schools.

Work-Based Learning:

designed to help students employability & technical options. These experiences are for four or more weeks and often a full semester or summer. They are paid, for credit, or both.

Career Immersion

- School-year and summer

Career Awareness

- Work readiness workshops
- Career panels

and career planning and in career exploration and

Career Exploration

- Company tours
- Networking
- Projects/ design sprints

Embedded courses

Work-Based Learning Definition

Workplace Exposure: Connect students with the workplace for career exploration activities.

